

How Child Protection interacts with My Health Records

Legal status of child		What can Child Protection do in relation to a child's My Health Record?
		look	restrict parent	remove parent	link CPP	link CSO/ACCO	link carer	deal with errors	remove worker	remove carer	opt child in	14 yo + an issue
No order	Intake, investigation, protective intervention by agreement	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	N/A	X	N/A
Interim order	Interim accommodation order (IAO)	to parent	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	N/A	X	N/A to suitable person	X	via helpline	via helpline	X	X	X	X	N/A	X	N/A to OoHC or other IAO type	via portal	via portal	via portal	via portal	X	X	via helpline	via portal	N/A	X
Protection order	Family preservation order (FPO)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	N/A	X	N/A
	Family reunification order (FRO)	via portal	via portal	via portal	via portal	X	X	via helpline	via portal	N/A	X	✓
	Care by Secretary order (CBSO)	via portal	via portal	via portal	via portal	X	via portal	via helpline	via portal	via portal	via portal	✓
	Long-term care order (LTCO)	via portal	via portal	via portal	via portal	X	via portal	via helpline	via portal	via portal	via portal	✓
TTO	Therapeutic treatment order (TTO)	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	X	N/A	X	N/A
	Therapeutic treatment (Placement) order (TTPO)	via portal	via portal	via portal	via portal	X	X	via helpline	via portal	N/A	X	✓
Order ended*	Case being closed	X	X	X	X	X	X	via helpline	via portal	via portal	X	✓
Permanent care order (PCO)		X	X	X	X	X	X	X	via portal before closure	via portal before closure	X	✓

* Includes where undertaking made  when PCO made: remove CPP and carer before closing case; assist permanent care parent to have child added to their medicare card, and then connect child's My Health Record.

Note: For Aboriginal children in the Aboriginal Children in Aboriginal Care (ACAC) program (where a authorisation under s. 18 of the CYFA has been made) the authorised ACCO is responsible for determining how they will interact with My Health Records.

Refer to My Health Record policy, procedure and advice in the Child Protection Manual for further information